

Adventure & Writing in Schools

Pete with a Polar Bear in Barrow, Alaska. Biologists sedated the bear to measure, weigh, and take blood samples.

"Your three presentations at Driscoll School today were fabulous, 5 star wonders. What a wonderful mix of storytelling and information."

—Amy Neale, Librarian
The Driscoll School,
Brookline, MA

Peter Lourie is author of many adventure stories for children including Amazon, Lost Treasure of the INCA, Hidden World of the AZTEC, and his newest Arctic Thaw: The People of the Whale in a Changing Climate. His stories come directly from his travel journals. He has taught writing at Columbia College, the University of Vermont, and Middlebury College. Learn more about Peter's adventures at www.peterlourie.com

Assemblies • Workshops • Presentations

Contact Kerri McPhail • Children's Authors Ally • 914-921-1776

www.peterlourie.com